RSF District Board of Education Appoints New Board Member

(Rancho Santa Fe, CA) – On September 13, 2017, Board Member Marti Ritto resigned from the District’s Governing Board. The Governing Board approved moving forward with filling the vacancy caused by Ms. Ritto’s resignation through a provisional appointment as authorized by Education Code section 5091.

The five individuals who applied for the vacancy were interviewed by the Governing Board during a Special Board meeting on October 16, 2017. The Board subsequently held a Special Board meeting on October 23, 2017 and voted unanimously to appoint Jon Yonemitsu as a Board member. Mr. Yonemitsu will serve as a Board member until the next regularly scheduled election for District’s Governing Board on November 6, 2018. The provisional appointment confers all powers and duties of a regular board member upon the appointee.

Jon Yonemitsu is a partner at the law firm Gordon & Rees and a parent of three children at R. Roger Rowe School. Mr. Yonemitsu holds a degree in finance and economics from Oregon State University and graduated from California Western School of Law.
